

JEWISHcolorado

HELPING TODAY. SECURING TOMORROW.

JEWISHcolorado IN BOULDER

In matters of daily living and in times of crisis JEWISHcolorado provide programs and services that embrace all Jews at every age and stage in life.

IN BOULDER, WE:

Sponsor events:

- Yom Ha'atzmaut Celebration: Bringing 400 community members together to celebrate Israel in partnership with the Boulder JCC
- Israel Emissary: Our Israel Emissary reaches 1,000 community members every year through Israel education programs, Film Festival discussions and other special engagement programming
- Israel Teen Emissaries: Our teen emissaries reach 200 kids and teens per month with exciting Israel education programming at Har Hashem, Bonai Shalom and Boulder Teen Initiative clubs at public high schools

All of these and more are hosted by the Boulder Israel Engagement Team (BIET) in partnership with JEWISHcolorado's Israel Emissary

Fund opportunities for families and children:

- Boulder Moishe House: Underwriting programming for young adult residents
- PJ Library: Delivering free Jewish-themed books and CDs to Jewish children and their families directly to their homes
- One Happy Camper: Giving the gift of Jewish summer camp through scholarships to Jewish children who have not previously attended overnight summer camp
- Early childhood education centers: Providing scholarships for families as well as training workshops for teachers and administrators
- Joyce Zeff Israel Study Tour: Sending high school students on the trip of a lifetime to Poland and Israel before their senior year
- Birthright Israel: A free young adult trip to Israel helps young adults develop strong ties with the land and people of Israel

SECURE

MOBILIZE

ENGAGE

CARE

ADVOCATE

Convene and strengthen the community through support for:

- Jewish Family Service of Colorado: Directing dollars to support community members in need of services, housing and community engagement
- Boulder JCC: Proudly sponsoring the Boulder Jewish Festival, Music@theJ, Boulder Jewish Film Festival and the Yom HaZikaron ceremony
- CU Hillel: This JEWISHcolorado campus gem is made available to the hundreds of Jewish CU Boulder students who call it their home away from home.
- Jewish Community Relations Council: 4 Boulder organizations serve on a public affairs council of 38 Colorado organizations and 15 at-large members to advocate for policies to strengthen the Jewish community, including anti-BDS legislation and childcare contribution tax credits.

HOW YOU CAN MAKE A DIFFERENCE:

Thanks to your support, more than $150,000 directly contributes to Boulder programming!

JEWISHcolorado is honored to be the steward of hundreds of Boulder-based donors. Here's how you can get involved:

- Flagship Fund – Support for value-added community programs, operations, and external grantmaking.
- Boulder Community Fund – A general pool of dollars that goes back into Boulder-based agencies, programs, and sponsorships.
- Directed Giving – Utilize JEWISHcolorado's giving platform to give directly to programs like the Israel emissary or PJ Library as well as any qualified Jewish non-profit.
- Planned gifts – More than 150 people have entrusted JEWISHcolorado by opening a donor advised fund, starting an endowment, or leaving a bequest or estate gift.

Thank you for being our partner!

For more information, please contact Ray Merenstein, Interim Chief Development Officer at 303.316.6452 or rmerenstein@jewishcolorado.org